

Two Sides to the Story

Newspaper Article Collection and Analysis

For this assignment, you are to read through several newspapers and locate articles about issues (social, political, whatever) to which there are two distinct sides. The more important the issue, the more likely it is that people will disagree about it!

Clip out a minimum of two articles, letters to the editor, or editorials about a controversial issue.

Write a page-length document (can be a bulleted list or essay form) describing:

- ❖ The issue itself.
- ❖ Why it is controversial.
- ❖ What each of the sides believes about the issue.
- ❖ What your position is on the issue.

You will be graded on the clarity of your explanation. Be sure that your writing is clear and easy to understand.
