Artwork Representing Myself Reflection/Self-Evaluation

Write a one-page (full page, single-spaced) reflective essay that addresses the following topics:

- ❖ The process you followed in creating your artwork.
- ❖ Exactly what you are trying to say about yourself in your piece. Here is where your self-reflection should take place. How did you determine the trait that was strongest in your personality? Was this something the general public would know right off the bat, or something someone would have to know you well to determine? Was it easy or difficult to convey in an image? Easy or difficult to find pictures to use in your piece? Describe in detail.
- ❖ If you had to pigeonhole your work into one IBMYP Area of Interaction, which one would it be and why (more detail than “it’s Homo Faber because I made it, please.”)
- ❖ What did you learn about yourself from completing this artwork?
- ❖ What kind of frame do you plan on constructing to enhance your piece? How will it be hung/placed?
